

HONORING ARIZONA'S BEST 2010 BOYS SOCCER

All-Arizona team

Josh von Allworden, Sr., D, Tempe Corona del Sol: The best defender in the state this season was a constant threat and a great weapon on set pieces.

Kerel Bradford, Sr., MF, Chandler Hamilton: Elusive player heading to Indiana after almost leading his team to an upset in the 5A-I title game.

Matt Bersano, Jr., GK, Tempe Corona del Sol: Goals-against average was .588. Defensive teammates were allowed to move forward because of the trust they had in Bersano.

Eduardo Cervantes, Jr., F, Phoenix Cortez: Tall and physical player clinched title for team with a shootout penalty kick.

Niko Dougall, Sr., D, Tucson Salpointe: Provided the senior leadership his young teammates needed and helped keep things in order on the back line.

Marcos Garcia, Sr., MF, Yuma Kofa: Stories of his play-making ability reached Phoenix well before the state tournaments. Finished with 20 goals and 15 assists.

Gilberto Gomez, Sr., D, Tolleson: Was a second-team all-state selection in 2009. This season his status improved because of his leadership.

Brandon Hansen, Sr., MF, Phoenix Mountain Pointe: Always aware of his surroundings and accurate with his passing. Oregon State-bound player.

George Malki, Sr., MF, Phoenix Pinnacle: Missed chance at a title as a sophomore but came back and kept his promise of winning another title for his program.

Jorge Sanchez, Sr., MF, Phoenix Carl Hayden: Meticulously helped pick apart teams with his dribbling skills and helped grow a soccer fan base Carl Hayden hadn't experienced before.

Donny Toia, Sr., F, Oro Valley Canyon del Oro: Yes, he scored a lot, but he also did so when it mattered the most the past two seasons.

92B PROS

92B PROS

92B PROS